ORZA SAILING SCHOOL: SAILING UPWIND

Orza Sailing School: sailing upwind

"Orza" in Italian means luffing up, bring the bow upwind. This is what we have been doing for over 30 years: sailing course after sailing course, boarding after boarding we bring hundreds of people of every age upwind and towards the great adventure of sailing. We accompany them between the waves to discover the energy, friendship and joy that you only find between people that share a healthy passion.

The Orza Sailing School staff

Our team has over hundred well prepared, skilled and passionate instructors, trained within our sailing school, who are ready to teach their students the method and magic of the sailing life. The teaching method is based on "learning by doing", which makes learning an active experience for people of all ages, always fun and far away from the performance based stress.

Orza is at the seaside, on the lake and in the city

Porto Pollo, Sardinia: a wonderful camp in the windy and famous bay of Porto Pollo, sail and windsurf haven. The building has everything you need: a kitchen and training room, an office for meeting with an internet point, wi-fi, storage room, terrace, and garden, dormitory style bedrooms each with their own bathroom. Just a quick walk in the Mediterranean scrub and you reach the beach: here our dinghies sail on the protected waters of the gulf and our cabin cruisers set sail to reach the spectacular Straits of Bonifacio islands and the Maddalena Archipelago National Park.

Fezzano - Porto Venere, Liguria: Orza is also in Fezzano, a unique little harbor in the Gulf of Poets, right next to the wonderful and famous Portovenere in Cinque Terre. Fezzano hosts four cabin cruisers from 10 to 14 meters long where guests will stay during their courses.

During the day you sail and maneuver in open sea or in the harbour, practicing mooring between the piers and trying out your skipper abilities. At night you can dine on board or have a fish dinner in a great restaurant, and then rest rocked by the waves.

Como Lake: Orza is in Dervio, windy spots where you can attend a course or a regatta on the school monotype.

Monza: in the city our Orza Scuola Vela base, in the center of Monza, is the main office of the sailing school. We organize everything here and host theory courses, meetings, special events and many activities linked to the sailing world.

Orza sailing courses, everything and more!

Orza sailing courses offer everything you're looking for, according to your experience, sailing level and the type of boat you want to practice on. As you know, not all sailors are the same: some prefer the leisure of cruising while others fancy the regatta grit. Some look for a comfortable and big boat while others love small, "wet" and fast boats. You may be keen to be a tiller-man, a helmsman, a skipper or a crew member... So, whether you are an adult, under 18 or a parent of sport lovers, we have what suits you: from the cruising school to the coastal cruise, from the offshore sailing to the regatta, from cabin cruiser to dinghy, all in 4 different learning levels. These are offered as weeks on board, weekends or day courses. Not to forget our windsurfing courses and navigation theory courses. You can spend a day, a weekend or even a week on board, so that you can fully satisfy your needs.

The fleet

70 sailboats are waiting for you: big cruisers, small mono-type sailboats, dinghies for beginners and experts and skiff are ready to turn you into a sailing expert!
